

Åbenrå Sygehus - Denemarken

Åbenrå Hospital wishes to reach out to its patients and extend them a welcome more like that of a hotel reception than a hospital. Visitors must feel reassured in an atmosphere of diligence, care and consideration. The people depicted on the columns typify not just Danes in general but the population of southern Jutland. By implication it is not just the columns but the surrounding community that supports the function of the hospital.

| | |
|--------------------|--|
| Fotograaf | Dorte Krogh |
| Locatie | Åbenrå, Danmark |
| Interieurontwerper | Ane Mette Ruge |
| Architect | Århus Arkitekter A/S, og Creo Arkitekter A/S |

Gebruikte producten

