

Aichinger Messestand auf der IBA 2012

iba has been the meeting point for experts of the baking, confectionery and snack industry since 1949. More than 1.200 exhibitors from all over the world present the industry's latest innovations, trends and technical developments in Munich. The world's leading trade fair for bakery, confectionery and snacks delights more than 70.000 visitors from over 160 countries. The development of innovative concepts presupposes expert know-how from various branches. For this reason, in the last few years they have set up a group of companies that possess precisely this specialized knowledge while complementing each other perfectly.
