

Atalanta International School

In the Atalanta international school in the Netherlands, the Forbo Aquajet technique has been used to cut a globe out of various Marmoleum colors. This to highlight the international character of the school.

Location	Heerhugowaard, Netherlands
Architect	Jim Lubach
Installation	Vloerenbedrijf Van der Laan, Assendelft
Photography	Erik van Wijk

Featured Flooring Products

