

Aveling Jandakot Training Centre, Meyer Shircore & Associates Architecture

Aveling is a professional registered training organisation and one of the most respected training providers in WA to those in the mining, resources, construction and industrial sectors. The Jandakot training centre is purpose built and offers state of the art facilities. The new centre offers modern technology and professional yet comfortable learning environments. Marmoleum was used throughout the public spaces.

Interior architect Meyer Shircore & Associates Architecture

Used Products

