

Emma Children's Hospital

The interior designers of the Emma Children's hospital in The Netherlands were asked to create a 'child layer'; all kinds of additives that have to do with the perception of children. Colors are very important to achieve that goal and therefore the interiors of the children's-, treatment and staff rooms are made attractive thanks to various brights shades of Marmoleum flooring.

Architect	OD205 Architectuur
Interior Architect	OPERA Amsterdam
Photographer	OPERA Amsterdam/ Mike Bink
Location	Amsterdam, NL

Used Products

Marmoleum Fresco silver shadow

Marmoleum Fresco golden sunset

