

Fininc S.P.A. office

The interior designer chose Flotex custom flooring because he wanted a unique, custom-made floor for the Fininc office. Forbo offers a bespoke design service which can help you if you want to create a truly individual floor solution. Whether it be photography, commercial branding or specific Pantone references, we can work to match your requirements. With a smooth, velour like surface that looks and feels like a carpet, Flotex flocked flooring is the perfect textile substrate for vibrant designs and true to life visuals which can be produced in high level photographic resolution.
