

Glenelg Primary School R-7

Glenelg Primary School is located in the heart of the historic beach-side suburb of Glenelg, Australia. The recent library refurbishment certainly features some fantastic iconic characteristics of the area. From the jetty entrance with sea and sky images on the floor and ceiling to the breakout areas that feel like you have been transported to the sandy beach of Glenelg. The students absolutely love it!

The sea and sand print on the floor have been made possible by our unique Eternal digitally printed flooring, on which you can print your own unique design.
