

Glenmorangie

The infamous single malt scotch whiskey brand, Glenmorangie, has a new state of the art bottling plant and offices in Livingston, West Lothian, which incorporates a selection of Forbo Flooring Systems' floor coverings across its project vinyl, carpet tile and safety flooring ranges. Forbo was able to meet the requirements for a wide selection of different floor types to achieve the projects brief in terms of durability and aesthetics. The used Eternal design is Eternal Concrete 13052 mud. This colour is no longer available, you are directed to a similar colour within our our new Eternal Material collection.
