

Guildford Grammar School WA

Guildford grammar school has a long history & tradition dating back to 1896 when Mr Charles Harper formed the school with his first students, whom were mostly his own and some other children from local families. Today Guildford Grammar has grown to more than 1200 children and has become a truly modern independent school. Marmoleum flooring was chosen to help achieve a teaching space constructed to sustainable principles and compliments the history given linoleum floorcovering have been around for over 155 years! Marmoleum is a truly sustainable floor covering as it is produced CO2 neutral and made from 97% natural raw ingredients, many of which, are renewable. The Marmoleum collection provides bursts of vibrant colour that enables an enjoyable space for learning without the institutional feel. Another valuable attribute is Marmoleum also contributes to a healthy indoor environment for Guildford Grammar, silently protecting staff and young children. Proven to naturally inhibit the growth of MRSA and other harmful bacteria as well as having a positive impact on those suffering from asthma and allergies.
