

Ihku Bar Levi

Decodesign's starting point in choosing the floor material was its durability and ease of maintenance in a very popular ski-slope restaurant. The choice of flooring also has a big impact on the comfort and aesthetics of the space. The exclusive pattern of the flooring is an integral part of the whole restaurant, which can be used to create an experience for all the customers' senses.

Location	Levi, Finland
Interior designer	Decodesign Oy, Milla Salonius
Installation by	Ecutiimi
Photographer	Jari Kestilä

Used Products

Allura Dryback Wood
dark serene oak

Allura Dryback Wood
light timber

