With the relocation of the interior decoration studio Eclectic Studio in Saratov city, a new floor covering had to be chosen. Since the Studio is engaged in interior design and is a meeting place for progressive architects and designers of the city, it was necessary to choose a modern, functional and bright floor covering that would meet the latest trends in the world of design. The high-tech innovative collection of flocked flooring; FLOTEX BY STARCK created in collaboration with the French designer Philippe Starck was the best solution.
