

Kure store

The exuberant Finnish designs of the Kure store in Oulu deserved an interior that would match the products. The store owners wanted a space that would be both playful and stylish. The unusual bold patterns of the custom vinyl flooring succeed in setting a comforting but fascinating mood, set off against bright colours of the walls and furniture. Everything was based on the floor covering extending through the entire space.

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| Location | Oulu, Finland |
| Architect | YO ZEN Arkkitehdit, Kate Salminen and Paula Kouri |
| Installation by | Heikkinen Yhtiot Oy |
| Photographer | Jari Kestilä |

Used Products

Vinyl custom flooring
Statement