

Kuwabara Home & Aterlier

The designer says all materials which construct furniture, should be comfortable for user, and would be loved more and more when time passes. The owner for the desk is Japanese cartoonist, so to choose desktop material was very sensitive. What he feels when he draws the picture with the pen on the paper was important factor. And also the color have to fit the other materials. Furniture linoleum, which combines softness and durability, has got the good approval for the customer.
