

Medical Center Tuttlingen

The Medical Center in Tuttlingen has independent doctors of different floors. The waiting areas are fitted with Coral Classic, Eternak, Allura, Colorex SD.

|                     |                           |
|---------------------|---------------------------|
| Installation        | Bandle. Tuttlingen        |
| Date of completion  | 2011                      |
| Photographer        | Wolfram Janzer, Stuttgart |
| Building contractor | Diverse Architekten       |
| Location            | Tuttlingen, Deutschland   |
| Project name        | Ärztezentrum, Tuttlingen  |

Used Products

|                                 |                                    |                                    |                         |                            |                           |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------|
|                                 |                                    |                                    |                         |                            |                           |
| XX Allura Wood DE classic beech | XX Allura Wood DE deep country oak | XX Allura Wood DE black rustic oak | Allura Wood light maple | Allura Wood soft tigerwood | Allura Wood golden cherry |
|                                 |                                    |                                    |                         |                            |                           |
| Allura Stone warm concrete      | Eternak Palette taupe              | XX Eternak Original corn smaragd   | Colorex SD quartz       | Coral Classic anthracite   |                           |

