

Neues Gymnasium Bochum

With the new Gymnasium in Bochum, Germany, the architect HASCHER JEHLÉ Architecture in Berlin planned a school that is not common for school buildings. The 2 buildings are ring-shaped and have a central meeting area. The rectangular class rooms are situated around the central area. The dark grey Marmoleum Fresco floor covering gives the space a sophisticated, modern look.

Project name	Neues Gymnasium Bochum
Location	Bochum, Deutschland
Date of completion	2012
Architect	HASCHER JEHLÉ Architektur, Berlin
General Contractor	rheinpark_r, Ralph Röwekamp Architekten, Bochum
Installation by	Raumgestaltung Schandert GmbH, Jüterbog
Building Contractor	EGR Bochum, (Entwicklungsgesellschaft Ruhr-Bochum mbH)
Photographer	Fotostudio Christoph Leniger, Paderborn

Used Products

Marmoleum
Fresco
volcanic ash

