

Primo Small Goods Chullora Office

Primo is Australia’s largest and well-known manufacturer of ham, bacon, and deli meats, supplying quality smallgoods to major retail groups across Australia. Primo head office in Chullora recently had a refurbishment, Interior designer Helena Leung selected Allura flex luxury vinyl tiles and planks due the outstanding acoustic rating and realistic visual and feel. Helena incorporated Allura flex Gecko Green and Lobster Red to match the Primo smallgoods corporate colours and corporate identity. Allura flex is modular and 5mm thick making it ideal for use with carpet tiles as no transitional strip between floor types is needed, making it cost effective with less wastage. A perfect solution for commercial offices. An extra heavy duty 1mm wear layer protects against scratches and stains and offers best in class performance, warranty and appearance retention.
