

Samyang Office

The most effective way to transform the atmosphere of a space starts with the right flooring choice. Forbo's Modul'up flooring brings a refined and sophisticated working environment to the Samyang Building offices with its elegant color and stable, well-balanced pattern. Its naturally harmonized tone and deep, textured surface add a sense of premium quality throughout the space, while its durability and excellent underfoot performance, optimized for commercial environments, ensure lasting quality even under constant foot traffic.
