

U Parkhotel

The former faculty building for Electrical Engineering and Applied Physics in The Netherlands has been transformed into the U Parkhotel. The hotel is on the campus of the University of Twente, and is a place where business and science can meet. All 72 hotel rooms, the restaurant and the conference rooms have a trendy Allura LVT floor. The warm wood design provides a contemporary and natural look and feel.

Project name	U Parkhotel
Location	Enschede
Date of completion	2019
Architect	Beltman Architecten
Photographer	Michael van Oosten
Installation by	Hovek Projectinrichting

Used Products

