

University of Illinois

The University of Illinois street dining renovation project includes a high-end micro-restaurant dining concept that serves over 3,000 students a day. The University has successfully used Flotex floor covering amounting to over 8,000 m2 on campus, installed in student housing and shared areas for dining and student union activities. The university has repeatedly chosen Flotex for its proven cleanability, durability and hygiene.

Location	Illinois, USA
Flooring contractor	Flooring Surfaces Inc. Champaign IL
Installation	Neverman Floor Artisans (SDRP, Bromley Hall), TSI Commercial Floor covering Inc. (IL Street dining)
Photographer	Jason Brown

Used Products

