

Zaantheater

Everything is possible in the Zaantheater in Zaandam, The Netherlands! The theater has a large hall for almost 900 people and a spacious foyer with a beautiful view over the water. Here a stunning, durable Allura wooden lvt floor has been installed. The building also comprises a cozy restaurant and rooms for a conference, meeting or party. In this area a timeless Marmoleum Slate floor with the unique embossed structure of stone has been installed.
