

Auckland Transport

Barnacle Design specified Forbo Flooring for this project with confidence based on Forbo's track record in New Zealand and other countries. "Even though we are on the other side of the world, it is great to know that the rail team at Forbo are just a phone call away and they have always come forward to quickly resolve any issues either directly, or through a well-chosen network of local suppliers", says Strode-Penny.

