

Monboddoo Bar, The Point Hotel

The Point Hotel in Edinburgh has unveiled a glamorous new look for Monboddoo, its fashionable bar. Hotel guests and socialites alike have been commenting on its striking new look, which includes an eye catching MarmoleumR floor. The stylish venue, re-designed by Edinburgh-based interior design agency KBA, exudes sophistication using a chic colour palette of gold, black and jade. The impressive range of vibrant colours on offer from Forbo's flagship MarmoleumR collection meant that KBA didn't have to compromise on elegance and flair to achieve a practical flooring solution to fit their very specific colour scheme.
