Forbo
FLOORING SYSTEMS

Fly Forbo was established in 2012 to recognise the crème de la crème of commercial projects, featuring an inspirational use of Forbo floors.

So if you've recently designed a commercial project that you think really stands out from the crowd then we'd love you to enter.

The Forbo judging panel are simply looking for an outstanding and inspirational use of our Forbo flooring (and off the floor products) across our entire integrated portfolio.

Due to COVID-19 we have adapted the competition to make the prize more accessible without compromising on luxury or excitement.

We're giving architects and interior designers the chance to win an incredible UK staycation at a location of their choice.

The winning prize is worth up to £6,500 and the highly commended prize up to £1,500 – it's a competition not to be missed*.

The winner will also feature in the UK's leading design magazine, promoting your project and our floors.

The competition is now open and you have until the 31st March 2021 to enter.

Fill in the online entry form by visiting www.forbo-flooring.co.uk/flyforbo

Within this edit, we're giving you the chance to step aboard the Flying Scotsman; relax, sleep and live amongst wild animals in Port Lymgne Safari Park; or to admire incredible work from famous artists – including Picasso – at one of the country's most unique hotels.

However, if there's a place on your bucket list that you'd like to visit, then then you could create your very own Culture Edit.
