

Transparency Leaders

COMPANY	BOOTH	LEADERSHIP IN:
Assa Abloy	4469N
Bentley Prince St.	2234S
Boise Cascade Co.	730S,941S
Crossville Tile	2515S
DinoFlex	3868N
Dow Corning	3625N
Forbo Flooring Systems	4155N
GAF	613S
Healthy Building Network	3879N
Idea Paint	310S
IndoTeak Design	3104N
InPro	1627S
Interface	1413S
Mondo USA	829S
Noble Environmental Technologies	5300W
Panel Source	3469N
Prosoco	1138S
SCS	4269N
Scranton Products	710S
Shaw Contract Group	1601S
Stego	1241S
Teknion	4347N
To Market	3262N

Toxics Supporters

COMPANY	BOOTH	TOXIC INVOLVEMENT:
3M	3216N
Alcoa	1721S
American Chemistry Council	2610S
Arkema	2037S
Armstrong Flooring	3969N
BASF	1001S
Bayer	2339S
Cabot	1221S
Centiva	4547N
DSM	936S
DuPont	2415S
Gerflor	2603S
Headwaters	1033S
Holcim	1421S
Johnsonite	1327S
Mitsubishi	3407N
NSF	4272N
Quanex Building Products	3153N
Roppe	2425S
Vinyl Institute	733S

TRANSPARENCY TREASURE MAP: GREENBUILD 2012

Find the companies that are real treasures in the quest for healthy building materials, and those that are showing fool's gold.

- disclosure via Pharos Project
- pilot participant for Health Product Declaration
- refused to certify coal fly ash as post-consumer material
- member of the American Chemistry Council
- member of the Society of Plastics Industry
- member of the Resilient Floor Covering Institute
- member of the Vinyl Institute
- member of the American High Performance Buildings Coalition
- member of the American Coal Ash Association
- opposes the Safe Chemicals Act
- lobbying against LEED®
- lobbying against regulations on Bisphenol-A
- lobbying against regulations on Phthalates
- lobbying against regulations on Isocyanates
- certifies coal fly ash as post-consumer material

