QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

THIS E. SCHNEIDER WELCOME & INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

FORBO GROUP 2022 IN A NUTSHELL

- Demanding market environment impacted by supply chain challenges, increased raw materials, energy, logistics, and other costs
- Good volume growth in H1 2022 strong decline in demand in H2 2022
- Significant increase in cost base and workforce in H1 2022
- Corrective measures taken to address operational and structural issues since late summer 2022
- Strategically important projects pursued and investments in value creation continued
- Attractive flooring collections launched in Flooring Systems and applicationspecific innovations developed in Movement Systems

FORBO GROUP FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE 2022

Sales growth in all regions thanks to sales price rises

Net sales growth of 3.1% to CHF 1,293.2 million (8.5% in local currency)

Declining volumes and a significant rise in cost structure

EBIT of CHF 132.6 million (-25.9%) and EBIT margin of 10.3%

Lower earnings reflected in Group profit

Group profit of CHF 101.4 million (-28.2%)

ANDREAS JAEGER FINANCIAL RESULTS 2022

OPERATIONAL CHALLENGES IN 2022

- Solid growth in H1 2022 followed by lower market demand in H2 2022, which negatively impacted sales and results
- Strong build-up of workforce and structures in H1 2022 led to a higher cost base in H2 2022
- Subsequent delayed reaction in H2 2022 to volume drop caused underutilization of production capacity and weighed on production costs
- Significant increase in input costs, particularly raw materials and energy, were passed on to customers with a time lag
- Rising production costs combined with challenges in sales and production planning drove up inventories

CONSOLIDATED INCOME STATEMENT

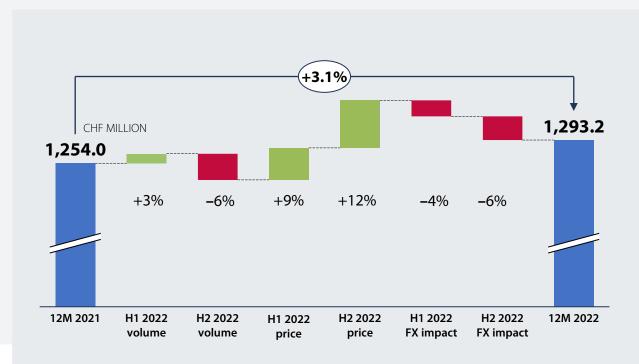

| CHF MILLION | 2022 | 2021 | Δ CHF & LC |
|---|-----------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| Net sales | 1,293.2 | 1,254.0 | +3.1% / LC +8.5% |
| Gross profit Operating expenses | 440.8 -308.2 | 451.0 -272.0 | -2.3% |
| EBITDA Depreciation and amortization | 193.4 -60.8 | 235.6 -56.6 | -17.9% |
| Operating profit (EBIT) Financial result | 132.6 -1.6 | 179.0 2.2 | -25.9% |

| Earnings per share undiluted in CHF | 71.76 | 91.63 | -21.7% |
| FTE | 5,390 | 5,532 | -2.6% |

- Higher sales driven by sales price increases
- Lower gross profit as a result of lower volumes, delay in adjusting structure and time lag in passing on higher costs
- Rise in operating expenses due to higher cost base and one-time impacts
- Increased depreciation from impairment in Russia

NET SALES BRIDGE 2022

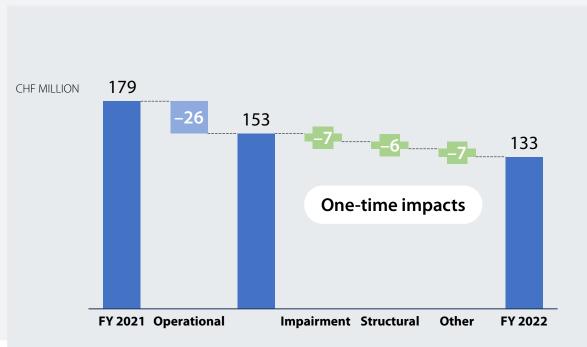

- Sales growth in local currencies of 8.5%; positive sales performance in all three regions
- Reduction in demand from late summer 2022 onwards
- Rising price increases over the course of 2022
- Negative foreign exchange impact of CHF 67 million

OPERATIONAL

- Lower market demand drove down volumes and thus FBIT
- Increased sales prices mainly covered higher costs for raw materials, energy, and logistics
- Build-up of workforce and structures in H1 2022 led to a higher cost base
- Delayed reaction to lower demand caused underutilization of production capacity
- Significant negative foreign exchange impact

ONE-TIME IMPACTS

- Impairment in Russia
- Structural adjustments
- Other

CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEET

| CHF MILLION | 2022 | 2021 |
|---|-------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Non-current assets | 388.6 | 428.0 |
| Current assets Cash and cash equivalents Working capital | 571.6 46.7 524.9 | 553.6 93.3 460.3 |

| Total shareholders' equity and liabilities | 960.2 | 981.6 |

- Reduced cash due to lower result and increased inventories
- Higher inventories caused by increased costs and challenges in coordinating sales and production planning
- Reduction in non-current assets and liabilities significantly impacted by foreign exchange difference

Net cash of CHF 21.4 million (exclusive leasing) plus own shares of CHF 78.6 million

CONSOLIDATED CASH FLOW STATEMENT

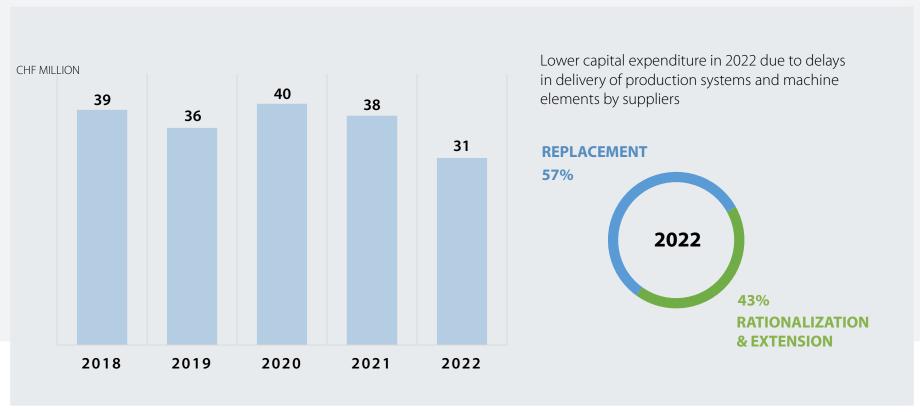

| CHF MILLION | 2022 | 2021 | |
|--|---------------|----------------|--|

URS CHRISTEN ACTIVITIES & FOCUS

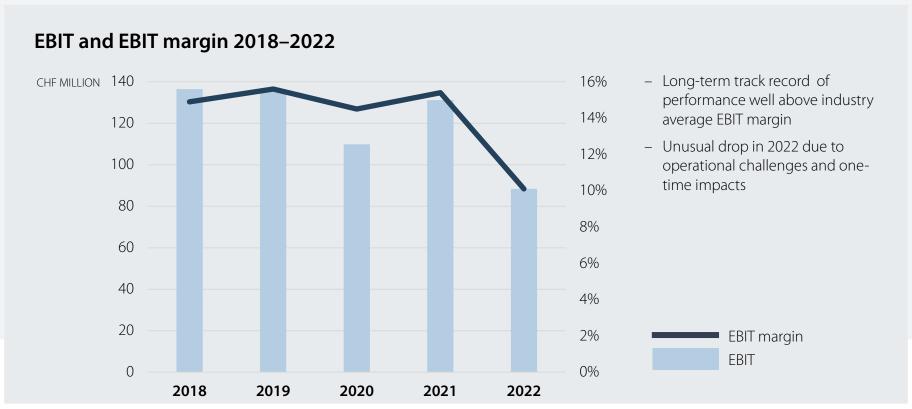

FLOORING SYSTEMS 2022 IN A NUTSHELL

- Positive volume development in H1 2022 reduced demand from late summer 2022, intensified in Q4 2022
- Project postponements due to increased costs for building materials; shift away from renovation projects to energy-saving projects
- Sales growth thanks to price increases in all regions and all product lines
- Supply chain challenges, rising raw materials, energy, and logistics costs
- Continued investments, particularly to promote circular economy/sustainability
- High-performance and innovative collections launched in all product lines

FLOORING SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT OF PROFITABILITY

MOVEMENT SYSTEMS 2022 IN A NUTSHELL

- Solid business year despite significantly higher costs for raw materials, energy, and logistics
- Sales growth thanks to sales price increases in all regions
- Treadmills, raw material processing, and industrial production segments recorded double-digit sales growth
- Lower sales growth in the logistics segment after strong demand in previous years
- Broad-based investments in infrastructure, technologies, and production capacity
- Launch of application-specific, high-value innovations for various customer segments in all product lines

MOVEMENT SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT OF PROFITABILITY

MEASURES TAKEN TO ADDRESS THE CHALLENGES/ISSUES

| CHALLENGES/ISSUES | MEASURES TAKEN |
|--|---|
| Significant increase in raw materials, energy, logistics, and other costs | Significant and continuous sales price increases in 2022; to be continued in 2023 |
| Increase in cost structure in H1 2022 versus volume decline in H2 2022 | Reversal of oversized structure |
| Increased workforce in H1 2022 on good volume growth in H1 2022 | Workforce adjustments in H2 2022 to reflect strong volume decline in H2 2022; to be continued in 2023 |
| Short-term bottlenecks in supply chains | Close cooperation between research & development and purchasing to evaluate the substitution of materials |
| Increase in inventories; decline in free cash flow | Continuous release of (safety) stock and focus on inventory management |
| Challenges in coordination between sales and production planning | Clearly structured coordination between sales and production planning initiated |
| Lack of focus on key priorities | Number of projects reduced; reporting and decision-making processes simplified -> focus on essentials |

- Sales price increases to address higher costs, particularly rising personnel costs
- Proximity to local markets to respond to developments in timely and agile manner
- Targeted sales & marketing activities to foster growth
- Commissioning of second production line in China (Movement Systems)
- Major expansion of Flotex production in USA (Flooring Systems)
- Increase in operational efficiency in all areas
- Further acceleration in our sustainability efforts supported by investments in innovation and technology

SUSTAINABILITY REMAINS A KEY FOCUS

Sustainability DNA

Fully carbonneutral linoleum without offsetting

> World market leader

Use of phthalate-free plasticizers in vinyl floor coverings Vinyl floor coverings containing up to 25% recycled material Various textile products contain 100% regenerated Econyl yarn Conveyor belt made from renewable raw materials

1st in the world

Energy-saving conveyor belt – allowing energy savings of up to 50%

1st in the world

Continuous improvements in all areas

Sustainability highlights 2022

Newly introduced "Topshield Pro" linoleum surface prolongs product life span Installed technology allows offcuts from vinyl production to be used for producing Flotex backing

New technology allows recycled vinyl flooring to be fed in production of acoustic vinyl floor coverings Introduction of new "Ecofiber" conveyor and processing belt with tension members made of recycled PET Various production optimizations in different places to reduce (fossil) energy consumption
