YOUR EXPERIENCE STARTS HERE

Forbo Flooring Systems has a broad portfolio of both resilient and textile floor coverings that are made to the highest quality standards. With a history that started in 1863 literally billions of square metres of floorcovering have been sold and installed in professional environments all over the world. You will find our floors in many of the iconic buildings of the last century.

Today our portfolio, more than ever before is a showcase of matching colours and designs that are both contemporary and on trend and that can be used in harmonious combinations suiting every taste or design direction. This book showcases the projects where flooring is creating an experience from the floor up.

THIS IS OUR WORLD

OTHER PROJECTS

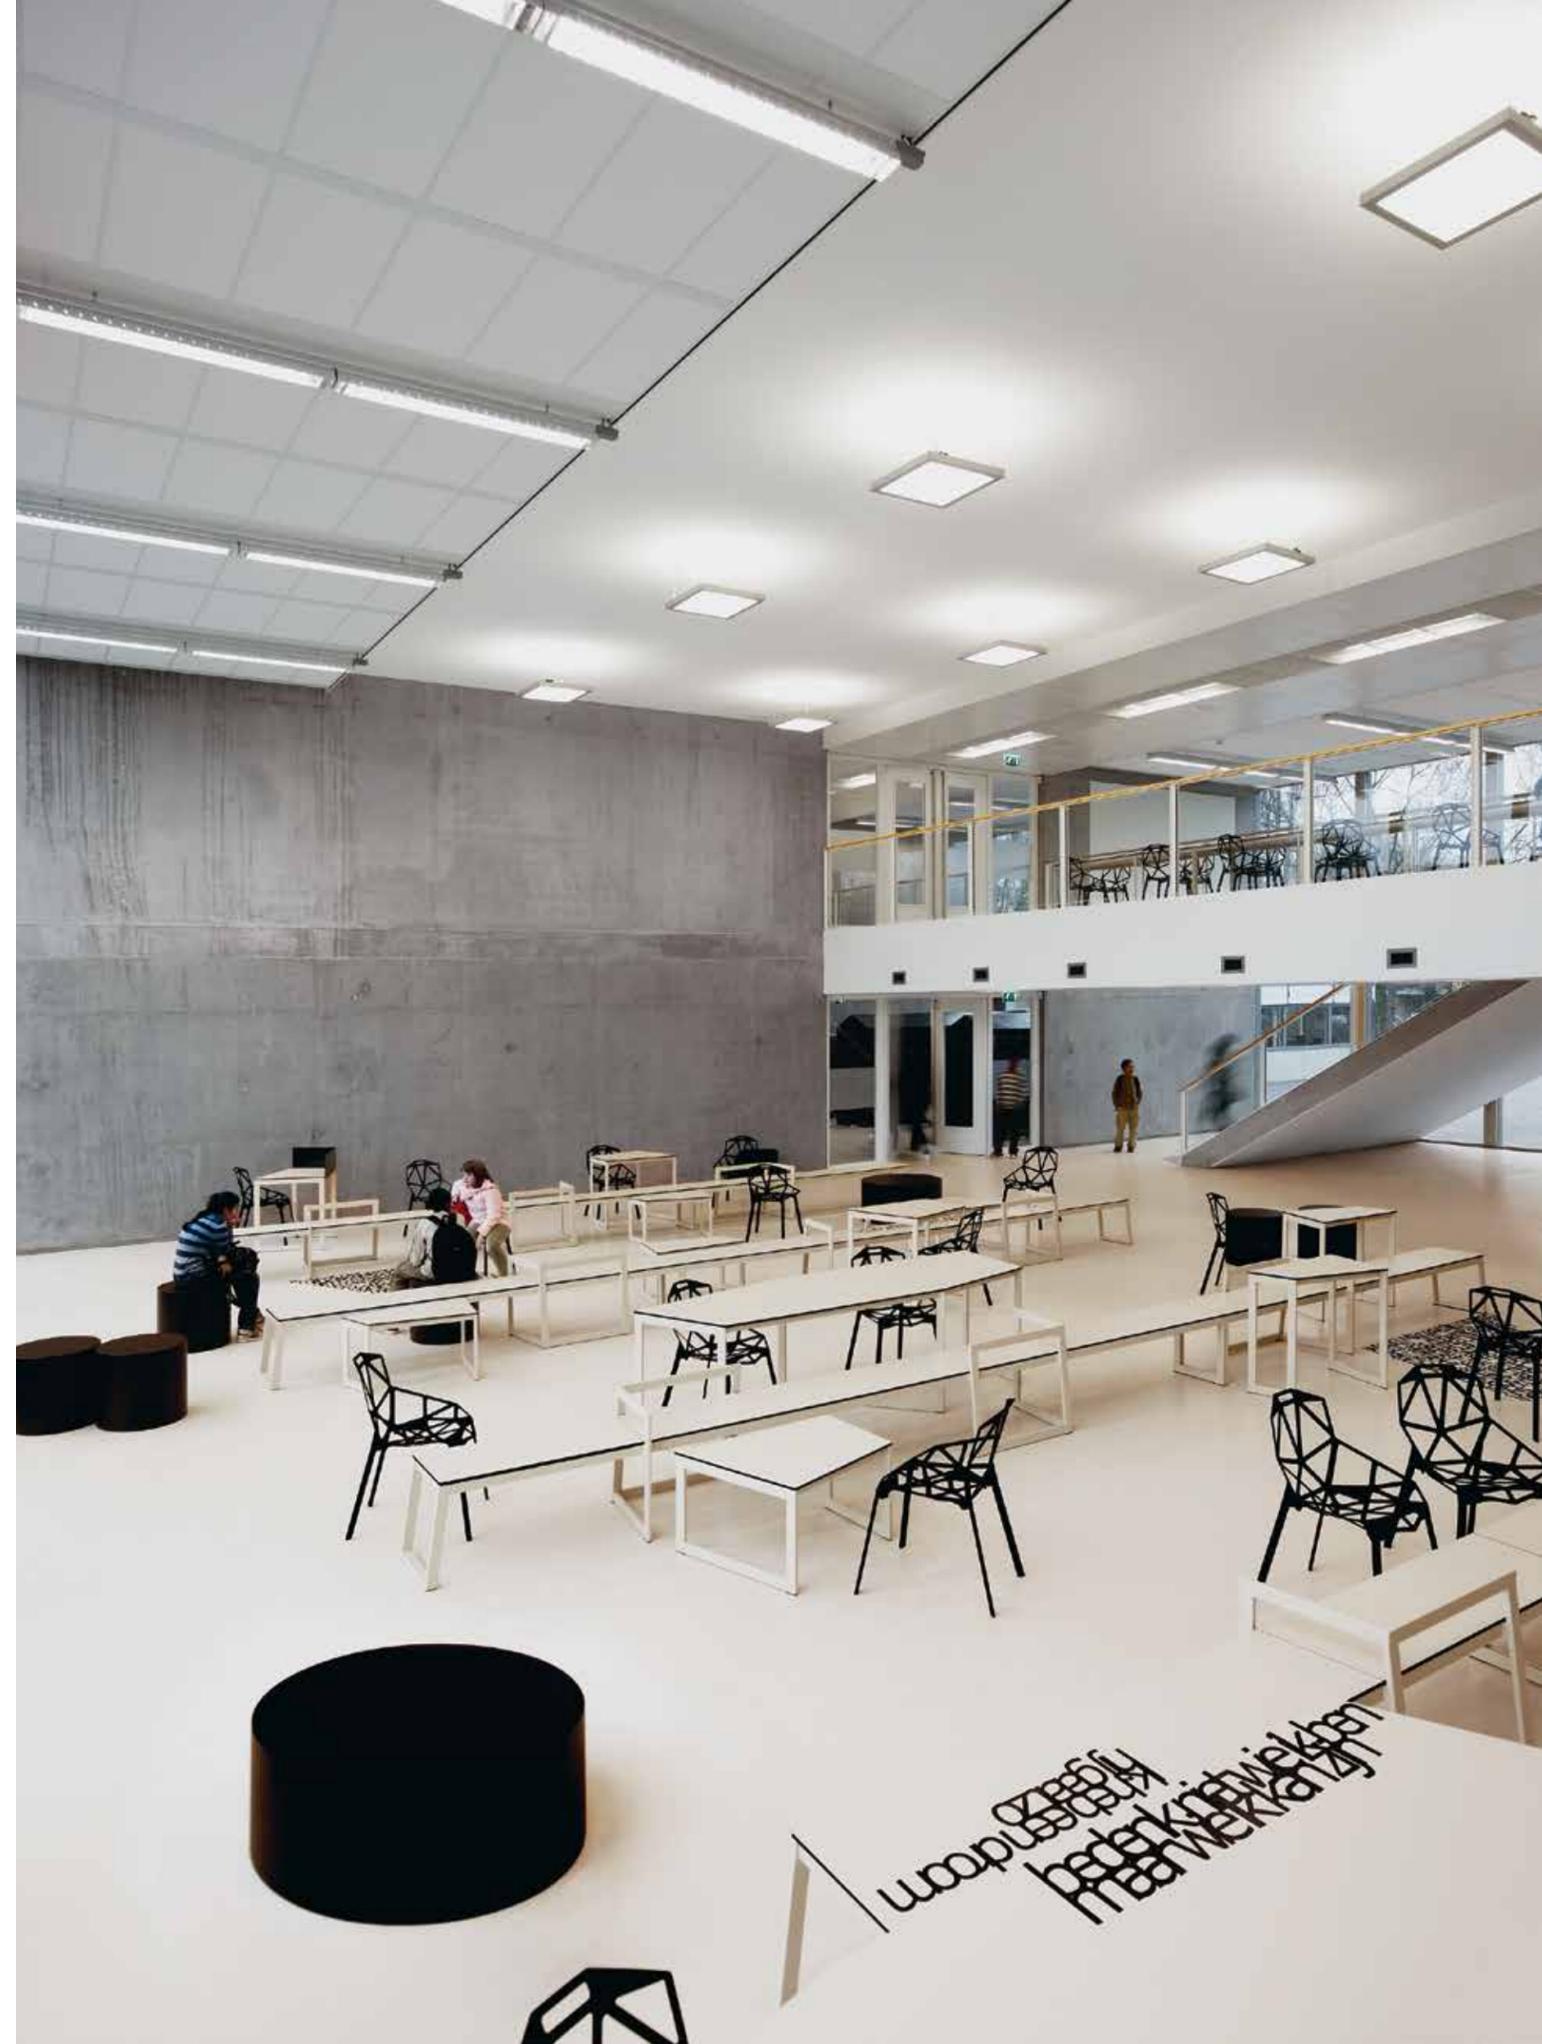

Forbo's reputation in the building and construction environment of the public domain is unrivalled. As the character of education facilities, health care institutions and public buildings is becoming more 'personal' and design driven, our floors play an important role in shaping the interior of modern institutional architecture. The next pages show some examples of our craftsmanship in places where hygiene, durability, reliability and quality are of the highest standard.
